

Natural Grasslands Breakfast

Featuring Dr. Judi Earl

Come to a workshop to learn how to identify native grasslands species, and how to manage your grasslands to improve their health and productivity.

Bundella	Tuesday, 24th February	“Gannany”
Mullaley	Thursday, 25th February	Meet at Mullaley Hall then in the field
Cryon	Thursday, 4th March	“Wattle Plains”
Narrabri	Friday, 5th March	“Noonameena” TSR Reserve
Kelvin	Friday, 12th March	“Myall Springs”

7.30 am start sharp till 10:30am

Resource packs, Breakfast and Morning Tea provided (bring your own chair and hat)

Presentations in the field

- EverGraze Session and Update (Bundella, Mullaley, Narrabri and Kelvin Sites)
- Managing grasslands to promote conservation and production – the best of both worlds
- Native Species identification techniques and resources – learn to identify major native grassland species
- Native grass identification with Dr Judi Earl, bring those hard to ID plants along.
 - Biodiversity and habitat values for endangered grassland communities

RSVP Essential - Spaces are limited so please confirm which workshop you would like to attend as soon as possible.

Contact - Peter Dawson (02) 6764 5984 or 0427 606 265 or email namoi.grasslands@cma.nsw.gov.au